As our website is about food, I offer suggestions for what customers would enjoy and what cuisine is light and easy on the stomach. I also assist by providing items that can be used or posted online. We created this website so that CCC students who were unsure about where to eat or where to buy food wouldn't have to worry about it. It's also intended for new students who have never been to the CCC. That's not far from the school, and also to establish this on finals.
