Group Number/ Project Title: _Group 8/FoodSpot_

During the project's development, the team experienced various issues however the team eventually got it complete and finished the website, only changing some of the design colors on the website's header and menu. The team also polished some of the codes to make them more appealing, and included a pricing to allow customers to see the cost of each meal and beverage. The team collaborated to develop this project and completed the project paper thanks to each other's creative thinking and innovation.
